Re: SMA Order #193, Potsdam, "Summoning and Relief of Oder Workers"

It has been reported to this office that there are still some children under 10 years of age, some old men and women, and some infirm persons engaged on the Oder project.

Therefore the Labor Office heads are directed to check the card files of all workers employed in the Oder Control project.

The following are to be released and replaced immediately:

- a. Children under 10.
- b. Men over 55.
- c. Women over 45.
- d. Infirm persons with an official certificate.

In addition, all workers who have been assigned to the Oder project more than three months are to be replaced. On the new worker's ration certificate a notation is to be made of
